PBJ On A Stick!

Get an adult to help you
make this delicious lunch!

INGREDIENTS

- 2 Peanut butter and jelly sandwiches
- 4 Wooden skewers (5 to 6 inches)
- 1 Cup seedless red or green grapes
- 1 Small banana, peeled and sliced

DIRECTIONS

- Cut sandwiches into 1-in. squares.
- Alternately thread grapes, sandwich squares and banana slices onto each skewer.
- Serve immediately and enjoy!

Ocean In A Bottle!

Help Grinn with this fun experiment!

WHAT YOU NEED

- Clear jar with lid
- Water
- Blue food coloring
- Glitter
- Baby oil
- Plastic floating toys

INSTRUCTIONS

1. Fill the jar halfway with water.
2. Add drops of food coloring until you like the color you see. Shake in a little glitter.
3. Pour in baby oil until jar is three-quarters full.
4. Place a floating toy on top of the oil. Screw the lid tightly.
5. Shake the jar gently to set your ocean in motion.

WHAT'S HAPPENING

Oil is lighter than the water making 2 different layers of liquid. The oil holds the water down and when the liquids meet it looks like the ocean waves!

Origami Butterfly!

Help Grinn make an origami butterfly!

Fold your square of paper in half diagonally, and then unfold and fold diagonally the other way. Unfold it again.

Fold the paper in half both ways and then unfold.

Fold all four corners into the center. Turn the paper over, and fold all corners into the center again. Unfold so you have a flat square of paper again.

Fold the right and left sides into the center.

Holding the paper down in the center, pull the central left corner (a) down and out to the side. Do the same with the central right corner (b).

Fold down the top and squash down as shown. Repeat steps 5 and 6 on the bottom section.

Fold the whole model in half, backwards, so the upper half (a) is behind the lower half (b).

Flip the top-right and top-left layers down.

On both sides, fold a small section of the top layer in as shown.

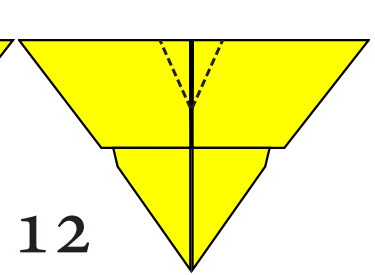

10

Fold the model in half to the right.

11

Unfold the model so that the opposite side is facing you, and pinch in the center section slightly so that it resembles the butterfly's body.

12

Fold the model in half again and then fold a crease down the widest part of the wings to make your butterfly look more 3D!
